Bill Weber Joins Cooke & Bieler's Investment Team

August 15, 2010 -We are pleased to announce that Bill Weber has rejoined Cooke & Bieler as the newest member of the Investment Team. Bill began his career at Cooke & Bieler in 2002 performing various roles in marketing, operations and research. He then departed in 2008 to pursue his MBA at the University of Chicago. Upon graduating with honors in 2010, Bill rejoined the firm as a Principal. He will be researching companies and industries in support of our various investment strategies.

Cooke & Bieler is an independent investment manager founded in 1949 and located in Philadelphia. With a focus on fundamental research, the firm seeks to identify high quality, low risk investment opportunities for its endowment, foundation, pension, and individual clients.
